

SATELLITE SYMPOSIA GUIDELINES

Satellite Symposia General Guidelines

Satellite symposia held by the healthcare industry will have, as their main objective, the communication of data which will enhance the knowledge of attending participants. There will be no material inducement or publication of a reward to attend the symposium. Delegates may of course be sent special invitations but no reward to participants is allowed for attending a symposium. It is not permitted to prevent participants from attending a satellite symposium unless there are legal requirements imposed by the host country of the event. Satellite slots are allocated according to the ESCRS priority points system and then on a first-come first-served basis.

The satellite symposia programmes must be submitted by latest Friday 23 June using the program template order form to be featured on the website and to be uploaded on the virtual platform.

The chairperson of the satellite symposium has a responsibility to oversee that the information presented during the symposium is based on proven data. In addition, the company holding the symposium and the chairperson are jointly responsible for adhering to the assigned time slot.

All satellite symposia must be held at the congress venue during the official time slots indicated in the Exhibition & Sponsorship Manual. Companies holding a satellite symposium outside of the congress venue and/or outside the official schedule for satellite symposia will not be invited to participate at the two following congresses. ESCRS also reserves the right to close the booth if the company is also exhibiting at the congress.

- ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION OF SATELLITE SYMPOSIA

In agreement with the applicable laws regulating restrictions for promotional activities in the context of medical events, prescription medicine advertisements will not be allowed on satellite symposia advertisements, posters and invitations displayed or distributed at the congress.

- PHOTOS, FILMING AND AUDIO RECORDING OF SATELLITE SYMPOSIA

A company holding a satellite symposium has the exclusive right to organise photos, film, and audio-recording of its symposium. For ESCRS 2023, companies will be provided with the full recording of their satellite session by ESCRS on a complimentary basis.
